

NATIONAL POISON PREVENTION WEEK (PPW)

MARCH 20 - 26, 2011

CLASSROOM PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

WHAT YOU SHOULD HAVE

- Information for you to review before your presentation: National PPW Editor's Fact Sheet, and The Most Dangerous Poisons For Children.
- Document to send home (1 copy for each child): Preventing Accidental Poisonings in Children.
- PPW DVD: make sure the teacher has a DVD player and monitor ready for you.
- Mr. Yuk stickers/magnets and other materials: have 1 for each student plus a few extras. Materials vary year to year depending on availability.
- Miscellaneous supplies: sample products from home to use for "show and tell"
- A Positive Attitude: this is very important information but please have FUN presenting it.

SUGGESTED PRESENTATION FORMAT

- Note: A PPW notice (postcard) will be mailed to all elementary schools in February or March.
- Introduction: (2 minutes) Teacher introduces you to the class. Briefly tell the students who you are and why you are there.
- What is a POISON? (5 minutes) "Does anyone know what a poison is?" Take 3-5 answers at random and then explain that anything can be a poison. Ask if they have younger siblings or pets at home and why it's important to know what to do in an emergency.
- DVD: STOP! Ask First! (6.5 minutes), produced by the NY State Poison Control Centers & Univ. of Albany School of Public Health (2007) and is appropriate for grades K-3.
- Questions, Discussion, and "Show and Tell": (10 – 15 minutes) Review important points from the DVD, solicit questions, and do a "show and tell" with various household products (e.g., medications, cleaners, pesticides, etc.).
- PPW Take Home Packet:  Be sure to set this up with the teacher ahead of time Explain that their teacher will give them a packet of information (brochures, printouts, and Mr. Yuk stickers/magnets) to take home. Some of the teachers prefer to send this information in the "Friday Folders". Encourage the students to share this information with their parents, grandparents, and brothers and sisters.
- Thank You's: Be sure to thank the teachers and students for the opportunity to share this information with them.
